

Huge Savings on Asian River Cruises

Mekong • Borneo (Rajang) • Ganges

There has never been a better time to experience a luxury cruise on the great rivers of Asia. Riverboats are not at all like blue water cruises and very different from European river cruise boats. Vessels are small, some with a maximum of just 24 guests. All feature elegant cabins, large observation decks, modern bathrooms and cosy dining rooms offering international cuisine. Traditional colonial furniture, impeccable service and the teak and brass fittings of a bygone age complete the ambience. Guests enjoy frequent shore excursions with informative guides to villages, local markets and historic sites.
